

Trident Homes Tactix Strength and Conditioning Coach

- To lead the strength and conditioning programme for the Tactix
- To work together with key support staff to get the best out of individuals and the team with the ultimate goals of winning the 2023 ANZ Premiership and producing Silver Ferns

Netball has a proud tradition of widespread participation and sporting excellence from grassroots through to ANZ Premiership and the Silver Ferns. The Trident Homes Tactix represent the mainland area in the ANZ Premiership and have the responsibility in partnership with Netball New Zealand (NNZ) for leading the development of elite players in the region.

In partnership with NNZ, the Tactix are seeking an exceptional individual to lead the Strength and Conditioning Programme.

The primary purpose of this role is to work directly with all members of the Tactix playing squad to achieve strength and conditioning growth both as individuals and collectively with the ultimate goals being to win the 2023 ANZ Premiership and produce Silver Ferns. The successful candidate will work closely with the players, Head Coach and Team Physiotherapist to achieve these goals as well as other key support staff.

Applicants should be self-motivated, goal oriented, leaders with strong communication skills, and enjoy working in close collaboration with others. The team is seeking an experienced, appropriately qualified, and high performing individual with a good understanding of high-performance sporting environments.

The position is a part-time fixed term appointment recruited in partnership with NNZ and will involve significant engagement with both organisations.
